A man's individual helplessness in some cases is remarkably striking. In the suburbs of St. Louis a man swore out a warrant against a girl who insisted on marrying him.

On the 6th day of August two million acres of land will be opened for settlement in Oklahoma. Only about one half of it will be for farming purposes. This land will be divided in to two counties. Thousands of people have been camping for months on the border, ready to grab when the day arrives.

The canvass that is being made by the Democratic aspirants in Adair county is progressing smoothly, and when the fight for nominations is over there will be no soreness. The defeated candidates will move in the procession until the November election, doing all in their power for their successful opponents.

Col. and Jim Younger, the red-handed rascals, bank robbers and railroad wreckers have been paroled, and are now moving about in the State of Minnesota unmolested. They remained in the penitentiary twenty-five years, but no punishment that could have been meted out to them would be so severe for their heinous crimes. They were in this place in April, 1872, robbed our bank and killed the cashier, Mr. R. A. C. Martin.

Clarence Shipp, who shot and killed Richard Hord and Dave Allen and wounded two other men, on Scott's Ridge, Marion county, is now in the Lebanon jail, having surrendered to officers of Taylor county, who turned him over to the jailer of Marion county. He is only eighteen years old. His 11 year old brother, charged with being implicated with him in the killing, is also in jail. The pictures indicate that they would not turn from any character of crime.

Under the management of Collector Sapp the people of Louisville and Jefferson county held a disgraceful primary last Tuesday. Mr. Grinstead, was nominated for Mayor over Booker Reed by a very large majority. Reed claims fraud, and while he will not make an independent race he will knife the whole ticket. The Democrats are tickled at the turn city politics have taken, and are sanguine of winning it. November the old time majority. Sapp's methods were so rotten that only about eight thousand voters went to the polls.

Some years ago Booker Reed attended an Appellate Convention at Eliza's settlement. He was a citizen of Louisville, and was present as a delegate in the interest of Gen. Joseph E. Lewis, his old Confederate Commander. It was a Democratic convention, and Reed made as much noise as any one man in it. The principles of the Democratic party at that time are the same today, but the mighty Booker went out after spoils, but the Sapp was up. His old and battle-scarred Confederate comrades now look upon him with a critical eye.

It is not worth any thing, probably, for us to attempt to clear the Democratic party from the slanders and abuse hurled at it by that part of the press that laps the McKinley soap from the trough of expectation—the Republican papers whose editors wait for the party to act before they take a position on any question and whose chief stock in trade is to claim a monopoly on all that is progressive and good. The Democratic party needs no defense. Its principles rest upon the broad foundation of equal rights and justice to all. Its history has no stains of treachery to advance the interests of a few, and the suffering season has come we have a crowd.

Mr. Hugh Wade has accepted a position in the store of S. B. Wade & Co. Hugh is an efficient young man of good habits, and will no doubt please the management, and who come to trade with him as well as the firm who employ him.

Mr. J. P. Walker and daughter, Miss Dora, were at Phil a few days ago. The little child of J. M. Ray is apparently better.

Our ball players in connection with Irvin's Store crossed with the Esto boys at Russell's prize the 13th last Tuesday evening, 14:11 in favor of Esto.

Our school commenced the 23rd inst. with 110 scholars as teacher, Mr. O. Wade visited each of the Cravens' school.

J. M. Ray has been informed that his brother, who is in Newport, is seriously ill of flux.

J. F. Gaffney, of Phil, has bought Bow Owen's shingle mill.

E. H. Hughes attended church here last Sunday.

Hon. J. R. Hindman and son, Robert, of Columbia, were at the Highland sulphur well last week.

N. M. Tuttle and E. T. Wills passed through here last Sunday en route for Sulphur Well, Metairie county.

Smith and Nell shipped a car load of cattle to Louisville this week last, averaged from 1200 to 1500 lbs. each.

G. A. Doherty, of Washington county, passed through here last week en route for Red Lick.

Miss Bertha Hamilton, of Nell, visited relatives in our city last week.

Mr. Emma Browning accompanied by Chairman Browning and his son, Jim, spent Saturday night here.

C. S. Bell and wife, of Nell, spent one or two days here last week.

Mrs. J. E. Moore, of Cave Valley, visited the family of W. M. Smith last week.

Mr. Fred Robertson, one of Columbia's up-to-date young men, was calling on our merchants last week in the interest of fine tobacco.

Mrs. H. C. Walker spent last week at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. W. C. Turk, of Bliss, who has been very sick.

Dr. J. A. Yates, of Edmonson, was here last week and informed us that the majority of the Democratic ticket in his county would be elected.

The protracted meeting at this place, conducted by Rev. Hulse and Bennett has had large attendance, good preaching and every thing indicates that much good will be done.

Mr. S. D. Caldwell and wife, of Portland, attended church here last week.

Miss Emily Burton and Mr. Leslie Allen, of Pettis, Pa., were the family of H. C. Walker Saturday.

Messrs. Jas. Garrett, Jr., Gordon Montgomery and G. W. Robertson were here last week shaking hands with our people.

R. L. Caldwell is having a nice barn built.

Messrs. J. A. Wheeler, Sam Myers have sold their property and are preparing to start for the Lone Star State.

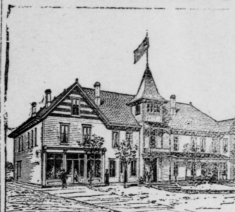

You can say what you please about the Peacock horses. Will Flowers sold a two-year-old Peacock mare to W. L. Brady, for $125; also a H. S. S. three-year-old gelding, belonging to his sister, Mrs. Wm. W. Will, to Will Rodgers, of Lebanon, for $250.

Mr. J. W. Walker who has been in McGregor, Tex., for the past six months has returned home. He gives a glowing description of the country and speaks of the hospitality of the people. He reports that they have not had rain for three months.

A fine rain fell here last Wednesday but the weather continues warm.

There will be preaching at the following places next Sunday: T. F. Walton, this city; D. E. Williams, this city; W. H. C. Sandige, Hopewell; F. C. Shearer, Hutchinson Schoolhouse; G. W. Montgomery, Knolwood; W. P. Gordon, Milltown; T. C. Huber, Pickett's Chapel; W. B. Cave, Liberty.

The management of the Columbia Fair has made good its word in the following announcement: All persons over seventy years of age will be admitted free. The old people do not often get away from home and will enable them, without expense, to spend four days very pleasantly with their friends throughout the country.

Your attention is called to the advertisement of Jones & Griston in another column. This firm bought out the blacksmith shop from J. W. Coffey, near the Columbia Roller mill, several weeks ago. They are prepared to do work in wood or iron. Give them a call when in need of any thing in this line.

Mr. R. T. Austin, well-known to many citizens here, writes us as follows from Washington, D. C.: "Please send me a check for $1.00 which I will apply on my subscription, and let the paper come. I can't keep house without it." Mr. Austin is that character of friend that is always glad to meet and hear from, and the above indicates that we will be communicating in a manner, for many months to come. Thank you for your kind words, 'Rob', and your family's good health, and may you live long and be prosperous.

Ordinance.

The board of trustees of the town of Columbia do ordain as follows: That on and after the 25th day of July, 1901, it shall be unlawful for any person to keep or maintain a hogpen, or an enclosure for holding swine, within the corporate limits of the town of Columbia, when same shall become so filthy to such an extent as to be offensive to persons living there, or to persons passing said pen or enclosure, and any person so offending shall upon trial and conviction thereof be punished for each offense by a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $10, and each day that a person shall keep and maintain such pen or enclosure shall be held and deemed a separate offense. ROLLIN HUNT, Clerk.
